

COLORING ACTIVITY

Puja & Devi are two flowers who look very different from each other. Yet they become friends. Their leaves flew away while they were playing. So now they want children to colour them some new leaves. You can see Puja, Devi and their friends the tortoise, the hare and the owl in

Everyone Is Different

by Lini Abraham Fernandez

.....AVAILABLE ON AMAZON.....

EVERYONE IS DIFFERENT

is a soothing story about two flowers who become friends, even though they look quite different from each other. Its meant for repeated bedtime reading to encourage friendships, parent-child discussions and to generate curiosity for plant and animal life.